Additional Information:

All L/W versions can alternatively be used with warm water (W/W) instead of their usual brine/water (LW) solution. The heatpumps are still technically, electrically and electronically identical.

Bosch versions with (F) are with metal fronts, all other versions with glass fronts. Bosch versions with (MB) include the buffer height module.

Buderus and Brand Neutral versions called 186 are with metal fronts, all other versions with glass fronts. Buderus and Brand Neutral versions with (TP50) include the buffer height module.

IVT versions without the additional letter B and W are with metal fronts, all other versions with Black or White glass fronts.

IVT versions with (H) include the buffer height module.

For all brands the heat pumps are identical regarding technical features
